NEW VIEWS!

Mr. Melvin Vaniman is now at the Volcano, where he hopes to get a photo which will do the subject justice. His wonderful photo of Honolulu, the largest direct photo ever made in the Islands, not to mention the smaller, but not less perfect pictures of the Paia, Waikiki Beach, etc., place him in the front rank of his profession. It is not unreasonable to expect equally good results from his present trip, which will include all points of interest between Honolulu and the Volcano.

When completed with Mr. Vaniman, who are associated with King Bros., will have a series of photos equal to anything made anywhere, and which will do more toward advertising the Islands than any other medium.

Part of the series are now ready and on sale at

KING BROS. Photo Studio and 120 Hotel Street. Art Store.

PICTURESQUE SOUTH SEA VILLAGE IS DOOMED

Typical Shack of the South Sea Island Squatters.

Portion of S. S. Island Squatter Settlement on U. S. Naval Reservation.

AN OUTCOME of the scattering of poor South Sea Islanders after the destruction of Chinatown in January of last year, was the building of a mushroom village of shacks within the breakwater on the Waikiki side of the channel, and now known as the United States Naval Reservation.
Within this rock wall enclosure several sand spits have been formed by the action of the tides, and upon these the homeless and destitute people from the South Seas built their squalid homes and have earned a precarious living by weaving hats and mats, and by fishing around the reef. That these people are poverty stricken is evidenced by the makeshift affairs which they call their homes. Driftwood, boards secured from any chance place, pieces of tin, boxes, crates and general debris are the component parts of these odd, misshapen structures, which they have erected to shelter them. Picturesque as the village may seem to the stranger who visits it, the Board of Health has determined that cleanliness shall be the first rule of the place, and to that end a conference was held with Captain Merry, U. S. N., commandant of the Hawaiian Naval Station as to what should be done to put the village in a sanitary condition.

Captain Merry put the matter entirely in the hands of the Board of Health.
Sometime ago the board had an investigation made of the condition of the squatter village by the city sanitary officer, who reported that it was unfit as a place of habitation unless made sanitary. The board recently took action, and an order was issued that the squatters must clean up the village.
Just how this will be done is not apparent, as it is a village built upon the sands, and the shacks are so poor that alterations cannot be made. Filth has collected in every corner, but this the villagers do not seem to mind in the least.

It is quite possible that the entire village may soon be razed, and a new place of residence set apart for them in another part of the city by Superintendent Boyd of the Public Works Department. The Kalia detention camp used during the plague times for the detention of persons from infected places, may be utilized for this purpose. Rev. Hiram Bingham, who was for many years a missionary among the islanders in the South Seas, has interested himself in the condition of these people and will endeavor to find them a home, even though it be but temporary.

THE WITHERS WEDDING.

President of the Stockyards Company Returns With His Bride.

The home of J. J. Havisdie, at 2640 Howard street, will be the scene of a pretty wedding tonight when Miss Lot-te F. Havisdie will be married to W.
S. Withers, an attorney of Honolulu.
The affair will be private, and only relatives and close friends will be present. Rev. S. J. Lee of St. James' Mission will perform the ceremony. The parlors will be decorated in palms and smilax and pink and white roses. The bride will be unattended.

The bridal couple will spend a couple of weeks at Del Monte, after which they will go to their future home at Honolulu. The wedding is the result of a love-at-first-sight attachment, which began when Mr. Withers and Miss Havisdie were introduced several months ago on the steamer Sierra, enroute to San Francisco. The bride is the daughter of J. J. Havisdie, a well known shiprigger and contractor in this city, and is pretty and accomplished. Mr. Withers is one of Honolulu's leading attorneys. He was formerly a resident of Redlands, in this State—Chronicle, Aug. 29.

Mr. Withers and bride came to Honolulu Saturday on the Mariposa. They were married on the evening of August 29. On that day the Navy transport Solace arrived at San Francisco from Honolulu bringing the news of the burning of the Stockyards stables of which Mr. Withers is president. The news resulted in the honeymoon to Del Monte being broken and the trip made at once to Honolulu.
